DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 20-32 and 34-41 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: This invention deals with a cable comprising a conductor, wherein the conductor is formed by a plurality of metal wires with air cavities between the plurality of metal wires, wherein the air cavities are configured to allow the cross sectional shape of the conductor to change when a radial pressure is applied to the insulation (claim 20). This invention also deals with a conductor comprising a variable deformation cross section during application of radial stress (claim 31). This invention also deals with a water sensing wire comprising a plurality of metal wires with air cavities between the plurality of metal wires, wherein the air cavities are configured to allow the cross sectional shape of the conductor to change when a radial pressure is applied to the insulation and the reinforcement filaments are radially internal with respect to the water permeable insulation (claim 38). This invention also deals with a water sensing wire comprising a water permeable insulation, wherein the water sensing wire comprises one or more reinforcement filaments radially internal with respect to the water permeable insulation (claim 39). This invention also deals with a cable comprising one or more filaments being provided inside the water permeable insulation (claim 40). This invention also deals with a water sensing wire comprising one or more reinforcement filaments provided radially internal with respect to the water permeable insulation (claim 41). The above stated claim limitations, in combination with other claim limitations, is not taught or suggested by the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed March 6, 2006 have been fully considered and they are persuasive. Specifically, the applicant argument that "None of the cited prior art discloses a cable or water sensing wire comprising one or more filaments radially internal or inside the internal radius of the water permeable insulation", nor a cable or water sensing wire comprising a conductor, wherein the conductor is formed by a plurality of metal wires with air cavities between the plurality of metal wires, wherein the air cavities are configured to allow the cross sectional shape of the conductor to change when a radial pressure is applied to the insulation", is persuasive and therefore the claims have been allowed.
